Outshine Competitors

A bright LED sign is visible day and night and is the best way to grab attention and convince drivers and pedestrians to come enjoy great food at your restaurant. These bright colorful signs will be visible from the highway and several blocks away, much further than static signage.

Instant and Scheduled Updates

With Samsung XPR-B outdoor LED it's easy to update your messages by time of day or season to create demand and excitement. Promote breakfast specials in the morning, feature lunch at mid-day and your family-friendly dinner or happy hour later in the evening.

Samsung outdoor LED gives your business the messaging timeliness and flexibility that no other traditional form of advertising can offer.
