New tools for hybrid workplace manufacturing

Explore new accessories certified for Microsoft Teams

Hybrid work is creating new opportunities for digital manufacturing. Seizing them will call for a new level of flexibility, unprecedented speed, and closer collaboration. That takes the combined power of a laptop, a desktop, and a tablet—all at once. Make sure your teams can communicate more clearly, more reliably, more accurately from anywhere—internally on the floor and all along the supply chain.

Explore the suite of accessories certified for Microsoft Teams designed for the way your people really work.
