

WHY CHOOSE ACER® TRAVELMATE® NOTEBOOKS?¹

“As more tasks become mobile, businesses--from SMBs to enterprise--are relying on portable technology to allow their workforces to keep up. Whether it entails traveling, meeting with potential clients, or just getting work done away from the office, Acer builds products to help companies run at maximum efficiency. With its TravelMate series of laptops, workers can bring powerful processing on the road. TravelMate products are built to withstand the rigors of travel and an on-the-go lifestyle.”

Business-class performance

TravelMate notebooks are equipped with a Windows® professional operating system, powered by the latest Intel® Core™ processors and feature ample storage and memory to meet the demands of business users.

Long-term reliability

TravelMate notebooks are subjected to tough reliability testing and some meet select Military Standards.² In addition, Acer DASP (Disk Anti-Shock Protection) absorbs shocks to help protect the hard drive, while DustDefender helps to prevent internal dust buildup.

Robust security

Security features incorporated into TravelMate notebooks can include a fingerprint reader, Intel® vPro™ technology and TPM (Trusted Platform Module) technology. These help to guard valuable data and give you peace of mind.

Essential communications

A full range of communication tools--WLAN, Bluetooth®, gigabit LAN, and webcam--are built into TravelMate notebooks so that you're always within reach of customers and associates.

Optimal viewing

TravelMate anti-glare displays range from 14" to 15.6" and up to Full HD (1920 x 1080) resolution. Many feature IPS (in-plane switching) technology for consistent viewing even from wide angles. Touch-screen models are also available.

Travel & office mate

These notebooks are designed for business, on the go or in the office. Optional docking solutions offer more input and output ports and easy connections to peripherals.
